

What's Happening in the Retail Leasing and Lending Market

CRE Finance Council (New York, NY)
5.17.18

Panelists from the banking, brokerage, developer, investment and legal communities share their views and answer questions at "What's Happening in the Retail Leasing and Lending Market." The panel discussion covers how higher retail store closures nationally and in the New York City metropolitan area are impacting:

- The development and re-positioning of shopping centers and other retail locations
- Credit availability, rates and security on first lien and subordinate financing of retail properties
- Retail leasing rates, tenant improvement allowances and other leasing terms
