

$630,000 Lien Recovery Obtained Following Jury Trial

White and Williams' workers' compensation subrogation attorney, Brett Tishler, recently litigated a four-week motor vehicle accident trial in North Carolina involving the death of one of the insured's employees and significant injuries to another. At the conclusion of the trial, Mr. Tishler secured a favorable verdict that resulted in a 100% recovery of the subrogating insurer's $630,000 worker's compensation lien. Super Lawyers recently named Mr. Tishler a 2018 "Rising Star."
