

White and Williams Celebrates 125th Anniversary

Philadelphia, PA
2.23.24

White and Williams LLP, a global-reaching law firm headquartered in Philadelphia, PA, is celebrating its 125th Anniversary. Since its founding in 1899, the Firm has grown to two hundred lawyers with offices in Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, and Pennsylvania.

"We are proud to celebrate our 125th anniversary. We are grateful to all of our clients for the trust that they place in our firm to handle their important litigation and transactional matters. The partnership we enjoy with our clients is special and a source of great pride to all of us at White and Williams. We are deeply committed to the success of our clients' goals and objectives," stated Tim Davis, Managing Partner. "We look forward to celebrating this historic milestone with our clients, attorneys, staff and alumni throughout 2024," added Davis.

The firm's practices and lawyers are regularly ranked in various industry publications and directories such as Chambers USA, Best Lawyers, and Super Lawyers, among others. White and Williams is also recognized among the Top Law Firms Pro Bono List by the Philadelphia Business Journal. White and Williams professionals volunteer their time and talents to serve on boards to help advance the goals of many charities and foundations. In celebration of its 125th anniversary, the firm will support a number of charitable initiatives throughout the year.

To commemorate its 125 years of service and growth, the firm has marked the occasion with a new logo and an anniversary website. For more information, visit the firm's 125th Anniversary website at www.ww125years.com.